The Journey Never Ends, class 1 of 10
Tuesdays, September 19, October 3, 17 & 31,
November 14 & 28, December 12, January 2, 16 & 30
1:00-4:00pm

One more step on our Journey. At Piece with Time is a full sized quilt based on the patterns in a book of the same name by Diane Frankenberger and Kristi Steiner. We will be making 12 blocks that include both piecing and applique, a large center medallion, blocks set on point, setting triangles, and multiple borders. Lots of new challenges that will result in a gorgeous quilt. Come join the fun.

We will bring our sewing machines to class each time and make one block in class. Then we will take home directions to complete one block at home.

The supply list for the fabric is in the book, At Piece with Time on page 8. We will spend some time during the first class discussing fabric choice, so you may want to wait until then to choose your fabrics.

“Tunic Bible” Workshop Series

Saturday, September 30

10:30am-4:30pm

PPQ is happy to announce they will be offering a series of tunic workshops adopting a multitude of sewing techniques and styles from the best seller sewing book Tunic Bible written by South Carolina designers Sarah Gunn and Julie Starr. Marlene Gruetter will conduct the Series.

In the first workshop of the Series, students will learn how to construct a Outside-Facing V-neck Placket style tunic. Easy to sew with a clean finish and a beauty of simplicity. Any fabric can be used to make the tunic.

Please note the techniques provided in this first workshop are the fundamental sewing elements beginner students need in order to be successful in the subsequent workshops of the series.

Teacher: Marlene Gruetter

Cost: $30
