2020 Christmas Parade theme "Snow Globe"

Summerville Christmas Parade is designed to promote positivity throughout the Town of Summerville while capturing the "spirit of the Christmas holiday." The parade is a family friendly, non-political event that aims to bring the community together to celebrate the season while representing the local traditions and Summerville hospitality.

Parade Highlights

The Parade is produced and powered by Summerville DREAM with the assistance of the Summerville Fire and Police Departments. Great opportunity to do holiday shopping! Downtown Summerville has outstanding shops, boutiques and restaurants. The parade starts at 2pm and runs an 1-1/2 to 2 hours.

We encourage attendees to arrive early as this is a very heavily attended event.

2020 COVID norms need to be supported - social distance as best you can and face coverings strongly encouraged.

Annual Christmas Tree Lighting

presented by the Flowertown Garden Club and the Town of Summerville in partnership with Summerville DREAM and Visit Summerville.

It will be held on December 1, 2020 with festivities beginning at 5:30pm
in front of Summerville Town Hall

Dignitaries and special guest performers will be on hand to delight and entertain us with traditional Christmas music. This wonderful event brings thousands of people together to begin the holiday season with festive music and the sounds of joy as thousands of twinkling lights are turned on!

Stay tuned for details of the musical groups who will be performing and of the food trucks and entertainment on Little Main after the lights are turned on. Many of our shops and restaurants will be open later so you can stay downtown, linger a little longer, grab a drink and a bite to eat and enjoy the evening.
